Final Assessment B		Name:	Character Quote Matching
The One and Only Ivan Match the correct quote OR description to the right character.
1. _____ Ivan	A. "Everywhere is my home...I am a wild beast, my friend: untamed and undaunted."
2. _____ Stella	B. "Ivan, why is your tummy so big?" ... "Have you ever seen a green giraffe?" ... "Can you get me one of those pink clouds that the humans are eating?"
3. _____ Bob	C. "I don't remember much about my early life, but I do remember this: Whenever I got the chance, I would dip my fingers into cool mud and use my mother's back for a canvas."
4. _____ Ruby	D. "I'm not even sure I have a job yet. I may not even be able to feed you, let alone some mutt."
5. _____ Julia	E. "I'll keep an eye on it. Money's tight, though. Can't be calling the vet every time she sneezes."
6. _____ George	F. "Maybe people will see the sign, and they'll know this isn't where Ruby belongs. Maybe they'll want to help too."
7. _____ Mack	G. "I think the hardest part of being a parent," Stella added after a while, "would be keeping your babies safe from harm. Protecting them."
Figurative Language Matching
Write the correct type of figurative language on the blank, using S for simile, M for metaphor, P for personification, O for onomatopoeia, and H for hyperbole.
1. _____ Stella is a mountain. Next to her I am a rock, and Bob is a grain of sand.
2. _____ It held her like a vine, stretching across the miles, comforting, strangling.
3. _____ I would give all the yogurt raisins in all the world for a heart made of ice.
4. _____ Stella loves the moon, with its untroubled smile.
5. _____ Thud. Thud. Step, step, pause. Step, step, pause. And there she is, so small she can fit underneath Stella with room to spare.
